What happened on that day changed the face of the USA and inspired civil rights activists throughout the world.

Black people were not allowed to sit across from white people, and black people had to pay their fare at the bus driver's, then leave the bus and get on in the back.

We are here this evening to say to those who have mistreated us for so long that we are tired, tired of being segregated and humiliated, tired of being kicked about by the brutal feet of oppression.

Americans, black and white, could pay their respects to this little woman whose courage changed the lives of millions.
